Here we have an excellent three-bedroom end - terrace home being brought to the market; this home offers great potential as a fixer upper. It had been extended previously to gain a third bedroom at first floor level and a kitchen and shower room at ground floor level.

The property is located extremely centrally and is within easy walking distance from The Cathedral, Letterkenny University Hospital, Atlantic Technical College, Garda Station and Letterkenny's Main Street to mention but a few along with a host of other amenities.

The property represents an excellent opportunity to purchase either a family home or investment property and would provide a yield of circa 12% per annum.

The property has a back yard, fuel store and a basic shed to the rear which can facilitate a car.
